

Harris & Harris Pledges $50,000 to Advocate Healthcare

October, 2011

In support of Advocate Healthcare, Harris & Harris has made a pledge of $50,000. This gift is made to help further the mission of Advocate Healthcare and support the many programs it offers. Harris & Harris is honored this gift will support the Advocate System Patient Safety initiative, the Healthy Steps for Young Children program and the Childhood Trauma Treatment program.

Harris & Harris is thrilled that such a rich relationship with Advocate Healthcare has developed over the last ten plus years. The partnership with Advocate Healthcare started in 2001 and has grown significantly. Throughout the years, Harris & Harris has donated to several Advocate Healthcare programs and initiatives, but this gift of $50,000 is one of the most significant. This donation signifies Harris & Harris' commitment to Advocate Healthcare, and also demonstrates the confidence and trust the revenue recovery firm places in the mission of Advocate Healthcare.

On November 2nd, 2011, the annual Advocate Healthcare Corporate Partners Networking Breakfast will be held in Oak Brook, IL. Because of their gift, Harris & Harris will be the sponsor. "We consider Advocate to be one of the best healthcare systems out there, and we are proud to be their partner. For years to come, we hope to not only donate financially, but also spend time working within the Advocate community and helping the patients," said Arnie Harris, President & CEO of Harris & Harris.

Philanthropy has always played an important role at Harris & Harris. "Yes, we collect debt. But we are more than that. We represent our clients when we do business and we embody the values that they stand for," said Arnie Harris, "It is important that we help the communities where we do business and represent our clients in a respectful and honest way." Harris & Harris donates time and money to organizations across the United States and focuses on those who need it most.
