Harris & Harris Meets Chicago Mayor Daley

From Submitted Reports

Arnie Harris, President and CEO of Harris & Harris, and Dave Harris, COO of Harris & Harris, were among dozens of attendees at an October fundraiser benefitting the Jewish United Fund of Chicago, hosted by Lester and Renee Crown.

Chicago's Mayor Richard M. Daley was the keynote speaker at the event, and afterward talked politics with Arnie and Dave. "We thanked the Mayor for his service to Chicago, as well as for the City's partnership with Harris & Harris for parking ticket collections and in various local philanthropic endeavors," said Arnie Harris. "It was a wonderful evening."

Harris & Harris has been an essential part of the fabric of Chicago's economy since its founding in 1968, and has been a source of competitive, well-paying jobs for the citizens of the city and surrounding communities for four decades. Harris & Harris is actively involved in area charities, such as the Greater Chicago Food Depository, the Jane Addams Hull House, and the WITS literacy program, to name just a few.

About the Jewish United Fund

The Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago is one of the largest not-for-profit social welfare institutions in Illinois and the central address of Chicago's Jewish community. JUF provides critical resources that bring food, refuge, health care, education and emergency assistance to 300,000 Chicagoans of all faiths and two million Jews around the world. JUF/Federation funds a network of nearly 70 agencies and programs that care for people at every stage of life, regardless of the ability to pay. Since 1900, JUF/Federation has worked to give voice to the community, and to assure that necessities are provided for its most vulnerable members—children, immigrants, the poor, the elderly and the disabled.
